

Ask for Support

Many organizations and businesses are excited to support creative placemaking projects, but you have to know how to ask.

If you're writing a government or foundation grant proposal, the funder may provide an application form. If you're seeking funds from a business or individual, you may need to organize your own proposal. Tailor the outline below to your needs as you develop your proposals.

If you're writing a government or foundation grant proposal, the funder may provide an application form. If you're seeking funds from a business or individual, you may need to organize your own proposal.

Proposal Outline

- I. Proposal summary
- II. Introduction
- III. Problem statement
- IV. Program goals and objectives
- V. Methods
- VI. Evaluation
- VII. Future funding (or project wrap up)
- VIII. Budget
- IX. Appendix