THE ORGANIZATION:

What We Do
With residents and partners, LISC forges resilient and inclusive communities of opportunity across America – great places to live, work, visit, do business and raise families.

Strategies We Pursue
Equip talent in underinvested communities with the skills and credentials to compete successfully for quality income and wealth opportunities.

Invest in businesses, housing and other community infrastructure to catalyze economic, health, safety and educational mobility for individuals and communities.

Strengthen existing alliances while building new collaborations to increase our impact on the progress of people and places.

Develop leadership and the capacity of partners to advance our work together.

Drive local, regional, and national policy and system changes that foster broadly shared prosperity and well-being.

Over the last 40 years, LISC and its affiliates have invested approximately $20 billion in businesses, affordable housing, health, educational mobility, community and recreational facilities, public safety, employment and other projects that help to revitalize and stabilize underinvested communities. Headquartered in New York City, LISC’s reach spans the country from East coast to West coast in 34 markets with offices extending from Buffalo to San Francisco.

The Virginia LISC office opened in Richmond, Virginia in 1990 and has established programming in affordable housing, economic development, small business, family financial stability, safety and neighborhood revitalization. Since opening 29 years ago, Virginia LISC has raised $29 million and leveraged $619 million of local investments. - Cultivate current and new relationships with foundations around the region, with particular emphasis on grant writing and reporting on LISC’s impact.
- Develop and implement a communications plan for the office.
- Develop media relations strategy, seeking placements in print and broadcast and cultivating relationships with journalists.
- Coordinate all public relations activities.
- Write and edit content for all press releases, newsletters, website pages, presentations and speeches.
- Develop and disseminate content on all social media platforms.
- Think strategically about how to further promote Virginia LISC externally, maintaining a key understanding of industry trends.
- Create and manage special events in support of the development program, including an annual celebration awards event.
- Supervise external public relations consultants, graphic designers, and copywriters and foster connections with national LISC communications team.
- Performs additional duties, as assigned.

Key Qualifications and Competencies:
- Bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university required, preferably in English, journalism, communications or related field.
- Three to five years of relevant experience.
- Excellent writing skills.
- Ability to communicate effectively in written, verbal, personal and presentation style formats with a wide variety of individuals.
- Work effectively with Executive Director to establish donor meetings, and guide relationships from origination to financial support.
- Demonstrate a high level of strategic vision related to matching LISC products and services with funders’ missions and needs.
- Demonstrate a high level of strategic vision related to promoting LISC through communications.
- Proven professional experience writing for grants, press releases, donor reports, web content and marketing materials.
- Passion for the mission of LISC, with at least general familiarity of community development, real estate financing and/or banking and public affairs.
• Excellent communication skills to articulate the case for support for various programs.
• Proven ability to source financial resources and demonstrated success in the area of major gift fundraising, grant writing, administration and related activities.
• Ability to structure and manage multiple projects within limited time frames and deadlines. Must work well under pressure, seek and synthesize information.
• A high level of computer literacy required, including familiarity with donor databases and Microsoft Office Professional. Experience with Adobe InDesign, and Illustrator a plus.
• Demonstrated success in establishing highly effective working relationships with key leaders, staff, and board members to accomplish goals for an organization.

The position will be based in Richmond. LISC offers a competitive salary and an excellent benefits package. Please send cover letter and resume to: fsresumes@lisc.org.
